

Back to News

Novack and Macey Attorneys Liebman, Marinello, Tedrowe and Moore Present Federal Practice Webinars

MARCH 15TH, 2013

Joshua E. Liebman

Novack and Macey attorney Joshua E. Liebman discussed Federal Rules of Civil Procedure (FRPC) 26(f) conferences in a webcast on March 14, 2013, as part of a series on Practicing in the Federal Courts presented by the Illinois Institute for Continuing Legal Education (IICLE). Bruce Braverman of Sidley Austin spoke with Mr. Liebman.

Mitchell L. Marinello, also of Novack and Macey, moderated. The webinar covered the requirements and guidelines for efficiently preparing for such conferences. Participants earned one hour of continuing legal education credit.

The next webinar in the series will be from 12 noon to 1 p.m. on Thursday, April 11, 2013. Courtney D. Tedrowe of Novack and Macey and Paul E. Starkman of Pederson & Houpt will talk on the topic, "Federal Procedure Updates." The webinar will cover recent changes to the FRCP, including FRPC 26 (changes to expert disclosure rules), FRPC 56 (changes to summary judgment rules), and recent changes to the federal venue statute.

Courtney D. Tedrowe

Christopher S. Moore of Novack and Macey will moderate. The series will conclude with webinars in Federal Appellate Practice on May 9, 2013 and Ethics for Federal Practice on June 13, 2013.

For more information about IICLE's webinars, webinar series recordings or handbooks, go to www.iicle.com. For more information about Novack and Macey's attorneys and practice areas, go to novackmaceyarchive.jellcreative.com or email info@novackmacey.com.