Eric Macey Named to International Society of Barristers

AUGUST 18TH, 2011

Eric N. Macey, co-founder of Novack and Macey LLP, a business litigation firm based in Chicago, has been selected as a Fellow of the International Society of Barristers. The prestigious society's membership is limited to 800 lawyers worldwide adjudged by their peers and judges to be outstanding in the field of advocacy. Mr. Macey will be one of only 30 Illinois litigators in the Society.

"The Society seeks to honor the role of the trial lawyer in our system of justice," said Donald H. Beskind, the Society's administrative director. One of its principle goals is the preservation of the adversary system and the jury trial. Mr. Macey notes that he is extremely privileged to be selected to join the Society and join the company of exceptional advocates who are its members.
