Monte L. Mann Named Fellow of Litigation Counsel of America

AUGUST 22ND, 2013

Monte L. Mann

Monte L. Mann, a partner with Novack and Macey LLP, has been selected as a Fellow of the Litigation Counsel of America (LCA), a trial lawyer honorary society composed of less than one-half of one percent of American lawyers. Mr. Mann represents clients in high-stakes business litigation in several subject areas, with an emphasis on disputes concerning the financial services, commercial real estate, transportation and manufacturing industries.

Fellowship in the LCA is highly selective and by invitation only. Fellows are selected based upon excellence and accomplishment in litigation, both at the trial and appellate levels, and superior ethical reputation. Established as a trial and appellate lawyer honorary society reflecting the American bar in the twenty-first century, the LCA represents the best in law among its membership. The number of Fellowships has been kept at an exclusive limit by design, allowing qualifications, diversity and inclusion to align effectively, with recognition of excellence in litigation across all segments of the bar. Fellows are generally at the partner or shareholder level, or are independent practitioners with recognized experience and accomplishment. In addition, the LCA is dedicated to promoting superior advocacy, professionalism and ethical standards among its Fellows.

Mr. Mann has earned numerous previous awards and honors. In three consecutive years beginning in 2009, based on Mr. Mann's representation of Cummins, Inc., Novack and Macey was named as a "Go-To" litigation firm for Fortune 500 companies by the publishers of Corporate Counsel magazine. In 2007, the Circuit Court of Cook County appointed Mr. Mann as its Independent Counsel to investigate the role played by the indicted law firm Milberg Weiss Bershad & Shulman in finding plaintiffs to bring a shareholders' derivative action against Boeing. This prestigious court appointment was covered in the national press including the Wall Street Journal.

In 2005, Mr. Mann was named one of "40 Illinois Attorneys under 40 To Watch," a prestigious list issued annually by the Law Bulletin Publishing Company. For several consecutive years, Chicago Magazine has recognized him as a "Rising Star," one of the Top Young Commercial Litigation Attorneys in Illinois, and a "Superlawyer." A 1992 graduate of the University of Pennsylvania, Mr. Mann received his Juris Doctor degree from Northwestern University in 1995.
