Steve Siegel Appointed to Co-Chair 2013 ABA Litigation Section Conference

JULY 15TH, 2011

Steve Siegel

Stephen J. Siegel has been appointed to serve as co-chair of the 2013 Section Annual Conference for the American Bar Association (ABA) Section of Litigation. Steve is a partner at Novack and Macey LLP, a business litigation firm based in Chicago.

The 2013 Section Annual Conference will be held in Chicago from April 25 to 27, 2013. The conference is held by the Section of Litigation once a year and generally attracts upwards of 800 attorneys.

The Section of Litigation, the largest specialty section of the ABA, helps litigators become more effective advocates for their clients. The Section is also a legal publisher, a provider of continuing legal education (“CLE”) programming, a source of news and analysis, and a national voice in discussions concerning the legal profession.

Steve said the appointment is an honor because “the Section Annual Conference is the premier CLE and networking event for litigators in North America.” Steve is entering his third year as a member of the Leadership of the ABA Section of Litigation.

Steve is also a member of the Board of Governors of the Chicago Council of Lawyers, a preeminent legal reform bar association. He is a member of the Energy Bar Association and the Advisory Board of The Institute for Energy Law. In addition, he is a member of the Advisory Board of the Jewish Council on Urban Affairs, and has been active in a wide range of other legal and civic organizations.
